ABSTRACT

A new edition of the City College of San Francisco (CCSF) Planning Atlas, which reports on the status and progress the college has made on achieving the goals set forth in the Strategic Plan, was published in 1998. The Strategic Plan calls for regular reports on approximately 50 performance indicators, some of which have been published for several years, but many of which are relatively new. This Planning Atlas consists of six chapters covering the primary and secondary indicators to measure each goal of the college's Strategic Plan. The chapters (goals) are as follows: (1) enhance access to CCSF, which looks at topics ranging from annual headcount enrollment, city and county comparison, and enrollment by zip code; (2) promote student success in achievement of educational goals, which examines topics ranging from degrees, certificates, and awards to course completion to student earnings; (3) improve satisfaction with college services, which explores student satisfaction with instruction and student services, and satisfaction with the learning environment; (4) promote a supportive and positive workplace, which discusses such items as employee satisfaction with working environment and employee demographics; (5) manage resources effectively, which looks at such topics as annual funds received and the fifty percent law; and (6) pursue highest standard of educational excellence. ## INTRODUCTION

Last year marked a new edition of the City College of San Francisco (CCSF) Planning Atlas which reports on the status and progress the college has made on achieving the goals set forth in the Strategic Plan. The Strategic Plan calls for regular reports on approximately fifty performance indicators, some of which have been published for several years, but many of which are relatively new. We hope this edition provides the reader with a useful portrait of the college and that the information will be used by administrators, faculty and staff as a resource document for planning and resource allocation decisions, for writing grants, publishing articles about the college, or just providing facts about CCSF to interested parties.

The Planning Atlas consists of six chapters covering the primary and secondary indicators to measure each goal of the college's Strategic Plan. The chapters (goals) are as follows:

- Access to City College of San Francisco
- Promote Student Success in Achievement of Educational Goals
- Improve Satisfaction with College Services
- Promote a Supportive and Positive Workplace
- Manage Resources Effectively
- Pursue Highest Standard of Educational Excellence

The Strategic Plan as well as many of the referenced reports are available at our website
<http://www.ccsf.cc.ca.us/Services/Planning/planning/strplan.htm>

We make every effort to publish reliable and accurate data drawn from a variety of internal CCSF and State Chancellor's Office sources. Sometimes inconsistencies occur between these sources; we have worked to minimize these inconsistencies, and to explain them when that is not possible. Our goal for the Planning Atlas is to have it contain information covering the most recent academic years, as well as more historical information for longitudinal comparison. Due to the recent conversion of the student database (Spring 1998), some information is newly available to us and cannot be provided longitudinally. We are also pleased to be able to provide electronic access to this report via our web page (listed above and referenced throughout the document). All the following pages as well as much of the source material (and in some cases additional information specific to this report) can be accessed there. We believe this edition of the Atlas substantially improves upon the information available in the Fall 1997 edition.

CHAPTER ONE

STUDENT ENROLLMENT AND ACCESS

ENHANCE ACCESS TO CITY COLLEGE OF SAN FRANCISCO

City College of San Francisco (CCSF) is dedicated to maintaining an open door for all who can benefit from enrolling in our programs. Entering students should have easy access to information needed to enroll in the appropriate programs and courses. CCSF will continue to respond to the needs of our students and will schedule programs and classes throughout the City of San Francisco to ensure maximum access for the diverse communities we serve.

The primary indicators of access to City College are the total numbers of adults served within the city and county of San Francisco, the college service area, as well as the diverse communities within its primary service area. Additionally this chapter begins with an overview of the numbers and characteristics of enrolled CCSF students.

ENROLLMENT OVERVIEW

1. Annual Headcount Enrollment

Students enrolling at City College of San Francisco can take Credit or Noncredit courses, or enroll in courses offered through our Contract Education, Continuing Education, or Institute for International Students programs.

Source: Office of Research. Credit & Noncredit data from CCSF ISIS & Banner Extracts; approximates State Chancellor's Office figures as they are reported in MIS. Other Program are self-reported by each program.

*Unduplicated figures count any given student only once for the combined semesters; e.g., a student who is enrolled in both Fall Credit and Fall Noncredit is counted only once in the Credit & Noncredit Unduplicated figure. Other Program figures are unduplicated within program.

<sup>1</sup>CACT / Garment 2000 figures were unavailable previously and are not included in the total enrollment for 1995/96 or 1996/97.

<sup>2</sup>The unduplicated number of trainees decreased but the total number of instructional hours for the trainees increased; i.e. fewer students are taking more hours as compared to last year.

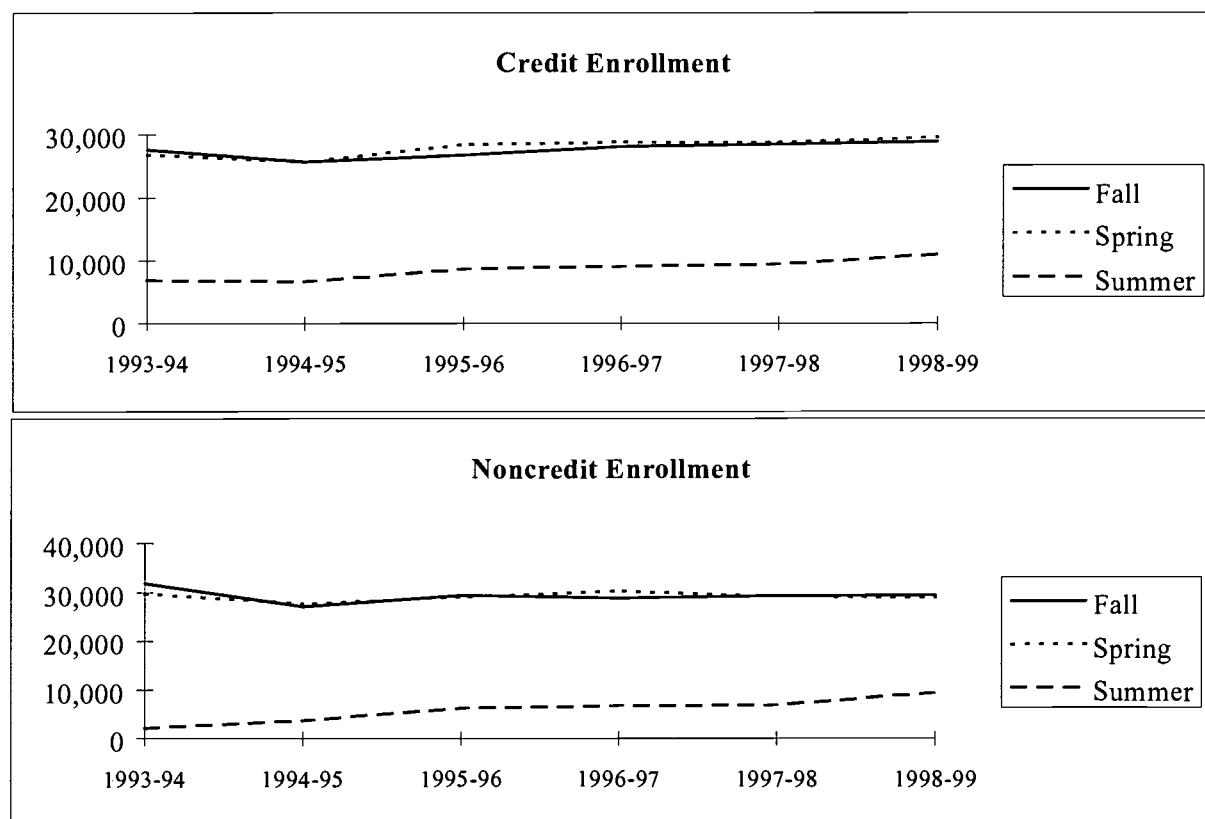

<sup>3</sup>Prices were increased 15% beginning in Spring 1999 because we had increased instructional costs. This is likely to have been part of the reason for the decline in enrollment.

ENROLLMENT OVERVIEW

2. Credit and Noncredit Enrollment by Term

The line graphs below depict a fairly steady longitudinal enrollment in both Credit and Noncredit for Fall and Spring semesters. Credit and Noncredit Summer enrollments have been increasing.

4. Enrollment by Age

Approximately 60% of our Credit students are under 30 years old. The 20-24 age group comprises the largest group of students enrolled in Credit courses. The majority of our Noncredit students are 40 years or older.

Fall 1998	Credit		Noncredit
	Number	Percent	Number	Percent
19 or under	3,741	12.9%	1,429	4.9%
20 - 24	7,681	26.5%	2,407	8.2%

ENROLLMENT OVERVIEW

5. Enrollment by Ethnicity

As the chart below shows, City College of San Francisco had an ethnically diverse student body in both Credit and Noncredit programs and courses.

Fall 1998	Credit		Noncredit
	Number	Percent	Number	Percent
American Indian / Alaskan	193	0.7%	65	0.2%
African American	2,313	8.0%	1,711	5.8%

PRIMARY INDICATORS

1. Participation Rate

Percentage of San Francisco adult population served by the college compared to the total adult population in the city and county of San Francisco. The participation rate for CCSF is considerably higher than the state average of approximately 6%.

PARTICIPATION RATE	1994	1995	1996	1997	1998
SF Residents Age 19 and Over	623,685	622,360	636,191	643,810	653,830
Fall Enrollment -- All Students*	56,303	58,337	60,945	60,817	60,665
Fall Enrollment -- SF Residents	50,084	51,845	54,131	54,069	54,000 **
CCSF Participation Rate	8.0%	8.3%	8.5%	8.4%	8.3%

Source: Census projections; Office of Research.

Definition: The Participation Rate is the ratio of SF Residents enrolled at CCSF in a given Fall term divided by the total adult population of San Francisco.

*Credit and Noncredit Unduplicated.

**This figure is a proxy. Due to a change in the student database, the number of unknown zip codes in noncredit rose exponentially from 30 in Fall 1997 to 3600 in Fall 1998. The Office of Research was only able to verify 50,907 SF zip codes for Fall 1997; however, it is reasonable to suspect that many if not all of the 3,600 are, in fact, SF residents.

2. City and County Comparison

Numbers and characteristics of the student population compared to the adult population of the city and county of San Francisco. The table below shows the San Francisco adult population (persons 18 and older) as compared to the CCSF Fall 1998 enrollments.

	SF Adult Population, 1990 Census	CCSF Enrollment, Fall 1998
		Credit	Noncredit
Female	50.2%	55.4%	57.0%
Male	49.8%	43.9%	35.3%
American Indian / Alaskan	0.5%	0.7%	0.2%
African American	9.7%	8.0%	5.8%

*Filipinos are included in the Asian / Pacific Islander category in the 1990 U.S. Census data.

SECONDARY INDICATORS

1. New from High School

Numbers and characteristics of recent high school graduates* who are first time students matriculating at CCSF. The first table looks at first time students-- students with no prior college experience-- of all ages. In Fall 1998, 3,889 students were both new to City College and new to college in general. Of those, 37% had attended a high school within San Francisco. The second table reports on first time students ages 16-19. These represent about 40% of the total first time student cohort of 3,889; in other words, less than half of first time students enrolled at CCSF immediately after of high school. Of the 16-19 year olds, 56% attended a high school within San Francisco.

2. New from Noncredit

Numbers and characteristics of CCSF Noncredit students matriculating into Credit programs. In Fall 1998, 8,511 students were new to City College Credit courses (this figure includes transfer students from other colleges). Of those students, 1,838 had been previously enrolled in or were concurrently enrolled in at least one City College Noncredit course. This 1,838 represents the 21.6% of new Credit students who come from Noncredit.

CHAPTER TWO

STUDENT SUCCESS

PROMOTE STUDENT SUCCESS IN ACHIEVEMENT OF EDUCATIONAL GOALS

The college is a learner-centered environment which develops and encourages the essential learning skills and relevant knowledge students need to achieve their educational goals. These goals include earning an associate degree, transferring to a baccalaureate institution, learning career skills, English As A Second Language instruction and other adult educational goals.

The primary indication of student success is the numbers of students achieving their educational goals.

Data collection on the following items is still in progress:

Noncredit Student Retention

License Examinees

PRIMARY INDICATORS

1. Degrees, Certificates and Awards

PRIMARY INDICATORS

Associate Degrees Awarded by Ethnicity for 1996/97

Source: CPEC 1996/97 Degrees by Discipline Report.

PRIMARY INDICATORS

Certificates Awarded

The numbers recorded below represent certificates which are reported to the Provost's Office. Some departments and programs do not report their awards and certificates to the Provost's Office; consequently, these numbers are not included in state MIS reports. The college is currently working on a uniform reporting system for certificates and awards that will correct this problem.*

	Number of Certificates
1995/96	592
1996/97	562
1997/98	734
1998/99	856

Source: CCSF Admissions & Records Office, 98/99 State MIS.

*In addition, the number of Associates Degrees and the number of Certificates of Completion awarded at CCSF for each of these years is currently under review. Figures for CCSF from the State Chancellor's Office (included in the PFE Fact Book) for both degrees and certificates during this time period are known to be significantly inaccurate. It is likely that approximately 100 additional certificates were issued in 1995-96 and 1996-97 in addition to those reported here. As the certificate and degree reporting problems are resolved, updated figures for these measures will be published by the CCSF Office of Research, Planning & Grants, and the updated figures will be resubmitted to the State Chancellor's Office.

5. GED Examinees

Numbers, characteristics and percentages of students annually passing the GED examination.

A total of 1,202 people took a GED exam in 1998 (Jan.1 - Dec. 31). Each examinee takes five subtests (Literature, Mathematics, Science, Social Studies, and Writing) and attends at least four testing sessions. Of the examinees, 679 qualified for a GED certificate*. In 1996, 57.5% of GED examinees stated that they took the GED to continue their education at the college level or in a training program.

7. Student Earnings

Level of compensation for CCSF students exiting selected programs after one year and three years in the workforce. Generally, wages reported for CCSF students are lower than state community college averages ($27,645 for CCSF versus $29,774 statewide the 3rd year out of school). According to the Bureau of Economic Analysis, in 1996, San Francisco had a per capita income ($39,249) substantially greater than the statewide average ($25,368).

Note: Figures exclude earnings for students who transferred to CSU or a California Community College (transfers to UC, independents, or out of state colleges could not be omitted at this time). Figures include former students who worked four quarters during the year reported, earned wages in excess of $12,875, and had wages reported in the state Unemployment Insurance (UI) system. The UI system does not include information on the self-employed, federally employed, military employees, out of state employees, or the unemployed.

CHAPTER THREE

STUDENT AND EMPLOYEE SATISFACTION

IMPROVE SATISFACTION WITH COLLEGE SERVICES

All students should receive educational services of the highest quality, and faculty, staff and administration should be able to rely upon the most efficient and effective college operations to fulfill their professional commitments to providing those services. College operations and services will rely upon a collegewide program review system as well as quality improvement processes to ensure that all students and CCSF employees receive the most reliable and efficient possible services.

Students and CCSF employees comprise the major groups that use college services. Indicators of how well the college provides services will rely upon satisfaction surveys developed collaboratively, primarily through the program review process. The Office of Research is currently working on a number of survey instruments which will do the following: provide updated and uniform information for each of the services, and provide new information for the areas listed "in progress."

The following items are currently in progress:

Percentage of students satisfied with scheduling and availability of classes.

Numbers and types of formal grievances filed by students annually and upheld by the student grievance system.

PRIMARY INDICATORS

1. Student Satisfaction with Instruction and Student Services

Percentage of students surveyed indicating satisfaction with college instruction and student support services

Instructional Survey

The responses below were collected over three Spring semesters (1995-1997) for use in departmental Program Reviews. The first seven questions were marked on a scale of 1 (poor) to 8 (excellent). Overall, students rated instruction at City College high with an overall average (mean) response of 6.76.

Question		Mean Response
Educational goals:	Encouragement from instructors in this department for students to complete their educational goals. (1-8)	6.58
Facilities:	Classroom facilities in this department. (1-8)	5.90
Office hours:	Availability of instructors in this department during office hours. (1-8)	6.64
Instructional quality:	Overall quality of instruction in this department. (1-8)	6.99
Respect for students:	Respect for students is encouraged in this department. (1-8)	7.04
Instructors expertise:	Subject area knowledge of instructors in this department (1-8)	7.35
Expression of views:	Encouragement from instructors for students to express viewpoints. (1-8)	6.82
Average of all questions on 1-8 scale		6.76

Academic expectation:	Instructors in this department have academic expectations of students that are 1) Too hard, 2) About right, 3) Too easy.	1.98
Informed of progress:	Instructors in this department keep students informed about how well students are doing: 1) Agree, 0) Disagree. Thus, the following percentage indicates the number of students who agree that instructors keep students informed..	89.11%

Breakouts by School and Department are available in the report referenced above.

PRIMARY INDICATORS

Student Services Surveys

The following student services had student satisfaction surveys administered for Program Review:

- Admissions and Records (1994)
- Financial Aid (1994)
- Counseling (1999)
- Career Development and Placement Center (CDPC) (1995)
- Learning Assistance (included in the Instructional Survey aggregate)
- Student Health (1995)
- Tutorial Center (1995-96)

On average, 36% of students gave student services an excellent rating and 40% gave them a good rating. The Office of Research is working on collecting more current and uniform information on satisfaction with student services.

Overall, how were you treated?

Source: Office of Research, hardcopy reports available on site.

Note: The Counseling survey contained two "overall" questions rather than one—
"Overall, how helpful was your counseling session?" and
"Overall, how were you treated by the clerical / counter staff?"

Similarly, the Tutorial Center survey broke out tutor's teaching ability and treatment by staff.

PRIMARY INDICATORS

In addition, the following programs have collected information on the satisfaction of students served, also administered through the Office of Research for the purposes of Program Review:

- African American Achievement Program-- AAAP (1996)
- African American Retention Program—AARP (1996)
- Disabled Students Programs and Services-- DSP&S (1997)
- Extended Opportunity Programs and Services-- EOPS (1996)
- Institute for International Students (1995)
- International Student Services—IS (1996)
- Latino Retention Program-- LRP (1996)
- Puente Project (included in the Instructional Survey aggregate)
- Student Activities and Leadership Programs (1996)

Two thirds (67%) of the students surveyed for AAAP gave the English and Counseling components of the program the highest rating of 8 or excellent. Similarly, almost 69% of the students surveyed gave the overall quality of instruction in AAAP an excellent rating.

Students responding to the survey for AARP gave the program high marks. Almost 77% of the AARP students said that the instructors in the program encouraged them to complete their educational goals (5 or excellent). The ratings for AARP Counseling services were 58% “excellent.”

Of DSP&S students responding, 72% rated the teaching quality as excellent. The same percentage said that instructors encouraged them to achieve their educational goals.

Many students rated the EOPS orientation as excellent (33% on a 4-point scale) or good (41%). Regarding “overall treatment”, 27% gave EOPS an excellent rating and 45% gave it a good rating. 41% said Counseling was excellent in providing useful major or career information.

Of International Institute students surveyed, 17% rated the instructional quality as very good or A, 21% rated it as good or B, 58% average or C. Ratings for the overall quality of the program were very similar to those for instruction.

Students responding to the International Student Services survey gave both Counseling and Admissions low ratings. Four percent felt that their educational planning session was excellent, 23% felt it was good. Similarly, 6% rated admissions as excellent, 34% as good.

Students responding to the LRP survey were most satisfied with the encouragement they receive from LRP instructors (56% gave it a 5 or excellent). Regarding LRP Counseling, 36% of students gave it an excellent rating.

Students responding to the Student Activities survey felt that they were being affected in an “extremely positive” way in the following areas: leadership skills (44%) and willingness to help other students (41%). Faculty advisors generally rated the benefit to students more highly than the students themselves did.

Source: Office of Research, hardcopy reports available on site.

SECONDARY INDICATORS

2. Satisfaction with Learning Environment

Percentage of students / CCSF employees indicating satisfaction with college learning environments (e.g., campus climate; facilities; access to technology; etc.).

Classroom Facilities

Students rated their classroom facilities on the Instructional Survey (see Primary Indicator 1 in this section). Student, on average, rated classroom facilities at 5.90, with 1 being the lowest rating and 8 being highest.

Source: Office of Research What Students Think of City College of San Francisco, report available online at <http://www.ccsf.cc.ca.us/Services/Planning/planning/think.pdf>

Library and Learning Resource Center

Satisfaction with services is generally high. Even the adequacy of the library operating hours were rated by 68% of respondents as “excellent” or “good.” However, 21.2% of written comments identified a need for expanded hours. The overwhelming majority of written comments were complimentary, noting the comfort and cleanliness of the physical facilities. (Primarily referring to the Rosenburg facility.) Areas of dissatisfaction included too much noise at times (17%), collection inadequacies (14%), and lack of study space (8%). Of faculty respondents, 79% felt that their discipline is well served by the library.

Source: Office of Research, hardcopy reports available on site.

Sexual Harrassment

Respondents were asked if they had direct experience with a specific list of inappropriate behaviors exhibited by other students, instructors or other college employees and 10% indicated they had such experiences.

Source: Office of Research Sexual Harrassment Student Opinion Survey report available online at <http://www.ccsf.cc.ca.us/Services/Planning/planning/survey.htm>

Technology

In 1997, instructional faculty were surveyed on the use of information technology for instruction and the perceived benefits. Enjoyment of teaching (32%), access to new resources (29%), and creativity (28%) were frequently rated very high (5 on a 5-point scale). These figures are even higher for advanced users indicating that the more adept faculty are at using instructional technology, the more benefits they receive from using it.

CHAPTER FOUR

WORKPLACE ENVIRONMENT

PROMOTE A SUPPORTIVE AND POSITIVE WORKPLACE

To better serve our students and communities, CCSF will promote a supportive work environment which fosters collaboration and communication, builds effective staff development programs, ensures healthy working conditions, and strives to be among the most productive and best compensated workforces in the California community college system.

The primary indication that the college is meeting its goal of developing a healthy workplace is the satisfaction of all of its employees. Indicators of employee satisfaction will rely upon surveys developed collaboratively with college organizations. A comprehensive employee survey is currently in draft form.

The following items are currently in progress:

Percentage of CCSF employees indicating satisfaction with college working environments.

Satisfaction ratings of CCSF employees with career ladder opportunities by employee category.

Number of workers compensation claims awarded annually.

1. Employee Satisfaction with Working Environment

Percentage of CCSF employees indicating satisfaction with college working environments.
Currently, minimal information is available for this indicator.

Technology

In 1997, CCSF employees (faculty, staff and administrators) identified a number of key difficulties and problems in using computers. The following were identified as "major problems":

- lack of sufficient funding for purchase and upgrades of hardware (44%) & software (39%)
- network access/connection (26%)
- equipment set-up/connection (24%)
- lack of technical assistance and user support (21%)
- adequate training (19%)

Despite increased use of technology, only 22% of CCSF employees feel their computer expertise "completely" matches their job requirements. Two-thirds indicate their skills "generally" or "somewhat" match their job needs or requirements.

<http://www.ccsf.cc.ca.us/Services/Planning/planning/techsurv.htm>

SECONDARY INDICATORS

1. Employee Grievances

Numbers of formal grievances filed by CCSF employees and resolved by the college.

	1994/95	1995/96	1996/97	1997/98	1998/99

Grievances Pursued to Arbitration	0	0	0	0	0

Source: Employee Relations Office, memo dated 11/16/99.

Note: For definitions of "formal grievance" refer to AFT and SEIU guidelines respectively.

2. Rank Among Bay 10

Rank of the college among Bay 10 community college districts in salary and fringe benefits. Median salaries for certificated employees are well above the median salaries for the combined Bay 10 college districts.* SFCCD is also well about the Bay 10 median for all major classifications for classified salaries.

Source: Employee Relations Office, memos dated 8/6/99 and 8/26/98 respectively.

*Bay 10 college districts include Chabot-Las Positas, Contra Costa, Foothill-DeAnza, Fremont, Marin, Peralta, San Jose-Evergreen, San Mateo County, West Valley-Mission, as well as San Francisco CCD.

SECONDARY INDICATORS

3. Employee Demographics

Numbers and characteristics of administrators, faculty and staff compared to the adult population in the 30 mile radius of the city and county of San Francisco.

4. FTE Ratios

Ratios of full-time to part-time faculty and classified FTE staff compared by college, school and department. The concept of the Full-time / Part-time ratio was initiated in law through AB1725 in 1988 and appears in Education Code section 87482.6 and in Title 5 section 51025. An ideal ratio of 75/25 (75% full-time) was stated as a goal, but the requirement that districts must meet is stated in terms of a specific number of full-time faculty and not in terms of a ratio. These regulations only speak to full-time faculty teaching Credit classes. There is no regulation pertaining to the number of full-time faculty teaching Noncredit classes.

FINANCIAL RESOURCES

MANAGE RESOURCES EFFECTIVELY

To increase the college's fiscal stability and effective management of its resources, CCSF will continue to pursue the highest standards of efficiency in delivery of educational services. The college will also aggressively pursue alternative sources of revenue including grants, alumni support and capital campaigns.

The two primary indications of effective resource management is the capacity of the college to find funds from alternative sources including foundations, corporations and alumni, and the level of efficiency in utilizing institutional resources.

The following items are currently in progress:

Program-Based Funding.

Utilization Rates of Campus Buildings.

5. Fiscal Stability

Rating of fiscal stability by the State Chancellor's Office. CCSF has been identified as having "no significant fiscal problems" in 1997/98 and 1998/99. During the 1996/97 fiscal year, the San Francisco Community College District was in the "Priority 3" category. (See previous page, item number three.)

Priority 1: Any district needing immediate corrective action and intervention by the Chancellor's Office to avoid or minimize the need for emergency apportionment.

Priority 2: Any district with an ending balance below 3% of General Fund expenditures, and with significant fiscal problems. The district needs to take corrective action within six to 18 months to avoid needing emergency apportionments.

Priority 3: Any district with an ending balance below 5% of General Fund expenditures, and with significant fiscal problems. The district needs to take significant action within 18 to 36 months to avoid needing emergency apportionments.

No Follow-Up Required: Any district with no significant fiscal problems.

6. Fifty Percent Law

Extent of compliance with the fifty percent law. Section 84362 of the State Education Code requires that the salaries and benefits of classroom instructors and instructional aides, comprise no less than 50% of a community college district's spending for education. In 1996/97, City College spent more than the State's 50% requirement on "direct expenses of education" (53.43%).

CHAPTER SIX

EDUCATIONAL EXCELLENCE

PURSUE HIGHEST STANDARD OF EDUCATIONAL EXCELLENCE

City College promotes educational excellence by supporting faculty, administration, staff and student participation in national, state and local professional organizations, by building partnerships with other educational organizations, and by pursuing the highest standards of excellence for its programs and services.

Excellence indicators include student achievement and student ratings of the college. They also include recognition of the college and its faculty, administrators, students and staff by national, state and local professional organizations, and recognition of the achievements of its students in academic, creative and workplace activities.

Only two of the indicators in this chapter are currently collected; these two figures are listed in bold. The data for these figures appears in Chapter 2, Student Success. We are working to collect other indicators of excellence in the future.

Primary Indicators

1. Number of Students Achieving the Dean's List
2. Student Ratings of College from Exit Interviews
3. Employer Satisfaction Ratings with CCSF Students
4. College Ranking in Number of Transfers to Baccalaureate Institutions See chapter on Student Success
5. College Ranking in Rate of Transfers as Measured by the UCLA Transfer Assembly Projects
No longer being calculated
6. College Ranking in Number of AA/AS Degrees Awarded See chapter on Student Success

Secondary Indicators

1. Numbers of CCSF Employees in Leadership Activities within National, State and Local Organizations
2. Numbers of Students on College Board's Annual Talent Roster of Outstanding Minority Transfer Students for Two-Year Colleges
3. Public Opinion Surveys within the San Francisco Service Area
4. Awards and Recognitions to CCSF by Professional Organizations for Program Excellence
5. Awards and Recognitions from Professional Organizations for Achievements by Faculty, Staff, Administrators and Students in Educational and Creative Activities
